Jottings
A penalty taking goalkeeper!
Made no first team appearances at Swindon Town, although he played in 10 wartime friendlies; the first in October 1915 versus the Footballers' Battalion
Appeared for Croydon Common in 3 minor cup matches, without scoring
Was selected as goalkeeper when a London Select team visited France to play two games; (i) v. a Paris Select eleven on 1.11.1913 (won 5-0) and (ii) v. Cercle Athletique de Paris on 2.11.1913
Was the Footballers' Battalion's first casualty on active service, albeit that he was hospitalised after a minor accident during disembarkation from the SS Bellerophon at Le Havre on 17 November 1915
His service number was F/69 and he was wounded in action and captured on 13 November 1916
