Jottings

The 1901 Census records him as a schoolmaster, an occupation he shared with his elder sister
Was a prolific scorer for Manchester City Reserves, but made no first team appearances
He joined Burton United when Manchester City omitted him from the club's "Retain and Transfer" list, making him a free agent
Most of his matches for Burton United were played together with his brother JOHN (Jack), who had also played for Manchester City and would also play for Grimsby Town
Scored Clapton Orient's first ever F.A. Cup goal (v. Enfield on 17.9.1904)
Scored twice on his league debut for Swindon Town (v. Leyton on 3.11.1906)
Played in the professional Croydon Common club's first competitive match
His younger brother JOHN (1881-1962) was also a professional footballer (Manchester City, Burton United, Grimsby Town, Sheffield Wednesday, Watford, New Brompton, Rochdale) and had three spells as manager of Ajax in Holland (1915-1925, 1928-1940 and 1945-1947)
His younger brother JOHN was manager of St.Gallen in Switzerland in 1912 when William went to play there
Was the trainer at Amsterdam F.C. (not to be confused with Ajax), but left at the end of 1913 when the club could no longer afford to pay him
Married Gertrude May Mellowdew in Bury on 16.10.1913
He may have returned to teaching following his retirement from football, but he was a commercial traveller for a cattle food manufacturer by 1939
